

Chase the chain.

Sixteen kills a step, eight steps, a second and a half to find the next one. Fly forward and the timer is yours; hang back and it is not. And when the screen fills with bullets, one button turns every one of them to gold.

- Chain kills sixteen at a time, up to x8 — and keep moving forward to hold it.
- Medals fly to you. A Chase Break turns every bullet on the screen to gold.
- Nine Batriders and nine guest riders; teams of three.
- The original 1998 arcade game too, with its own settings and rankings.
- Practice any of seven stages and eighteen bosses.
